Sheriff Discovers Still and Some of the Real Stuff

One complete still, one gallon of highly distilled corn whisky, and two barrels of mash in fermentation were barrels of mash in fermentation were the fruits of a visit made by Sheriff Bigelow last week Thursday to the farm of John Vilko in Hinckley town-ship on the town line road north of Sherman's Corners.

The still, says Sheriff Bigelow, was an elaborate one, and unique in con-struction. Instead of being equip-ped with coils as common to the usual form of still, this one had two lengt ped with coils as common to the usual form of still, this one had two long lengths of pipe, one within the other, the intervening space being filled with cold water, a continual flow of which was maintained by syphonic principle, thus affording more direct and more rapid distillation.

In appearance the distilled corn liquer is as clear and white as spring water, and is—that is, it is said to be—as firey as the infernal regions. A quantity poured upon a table burned with a clear blue flame until consumed, leaving no perceptible residue.

Vilko was placed under arrest and before Justice W. P. Ainsworth later in the day plead guilty to illegal manufacturing of liquor and received a sentence of $300 and costs, the latter amounting to $11.40. Satisfactory arrangements were made with the court for the payment of the fine and Vilko was released.

COY MURDER ECHO IN

The action started in court last week is brought by Frederick and Margarita Petrie against the unknown heirs, legatees, devisees, ex-ecutors and administrators of Sarah Merrick, Mary Nye, Hiram Sheldon, Harriet Sheldon, and Shubal Coy, all deceased, to quiet title in a tract of 90 acres of land in Lafayette township, known as part of original Mer-

The three townships of Liverpool, Hinckley, and Brunswick held a wool show and multon banquet in the base-ment of the Disciple church at Bruns-

Mr. Hammond told how the wool is handled after it leaves the farmers' hands until it is made into cloth.

Mr. A. S. Canfield spoke on the wool warehouse at Columnus and the wool sination at the present time. In the wool show only two grades of wool were represented—the 3-8 and 1-4 blood. Mr. Ed. Beutel took first in the 3-8 class and second in the 1-4 blood. Mr. J. H. Hinkel took first in the 1-4 grade.

TEST FANS INCREASING

The increasing interest of Medina county farmers in the tuberculin test is evidenced by the rapidity with which they are making application. Here are five more who have lined up since last week: H. R. Kreider, I. G. Huntsberegr, J. M. Burkhart and Mrs. Edward Koppes, all of Wadsworth and E. O. Yoder of Guilford.

The state veterinarian states in a recent letter that testing will be done in Medina county shortly after July 1. Get busy and get your application in before that time.

Much Fleece Being Shipped to Colum bus Warehouse

On Thursday, May 12, a car of wool was shipped from Litchfield. Over 50 farmers brought in their wool amounting to 16,000 lbs. Mr. A. S. Canfield and Brant Earley, Executive Secretary, had charge of the shipment. The next car will be loaded and shipped fromMedina on Thursday, May 26, at Bowman's warehoue on the B. & O. tracks.

The following communication just received by the Medina County Farm Bureau from Field Manager J. F. Walker of Columbus, is of interest:

"The wools received in 1920 and up

SUMMONS COMES TO MRS. ELMINA WALKER

SPENT MOST OF LIFE

Was Eighty-five Years of Age and on Tuesday.

Rounding out eighty-five long years of life, and fulfilling the promise, "Thou shalt come to thy grave in a full age, as a shock of corn cometh in its season," Mrs. Elmina Hulet Walker passed away last Saturday, May 14, at her home, 228 West Friendship street.

She was the youngest child of Wes-ley and Sally Turner Hulet, and was born Feb. 17, 1836. The parents were ley and Sally Turner Hulet, and was born Feb. 17, 1836. The parents were strong pioneers of the Christian faith in the early days of the setlement of Ohio. The daughter was united in marriage to George Walker in 1853 and they began their married life on her parents' farm five miles north of Medina, where most of her life was spent until she moved to her home in the village. In middle life she and her husband united with the Methodist church, of which she ever remained a faithful and conscientious member, Hers was ever a strenuous life. Be-

Funeral services were conducted at the home and in the church of which she was a member on Tuesday at 2 p. m., by her pastor, Rev. W. H. Bry-enton, assisted by Rev. Phillip Kelser, and interment was made in Brunswick cemetery.

"ALL ABOARD" ARTISTIC AND FINANCIAL SUCCESS

Guild of St. Paul's Church Realizes

While the production of another musical comedy was quite unneces-y to prove the unusual amount of musical and histrionic talent of which Medina village is possessed, neverthe-less, the cold fact was again demonstrated on Thursday and Friday evenings of last week in the rendition enings of last week in the rendition of the popular and tuneful melange, "All Aboard." at the Princess theater; Mr. Brant Early of the Farm Bureau.

Mr. Wagner, principal of the high school, County Agent Halderson and Mr. Brant Early of the Farm Bureau.

Mr. Brant Early of the Board of Education, possibly Mairet Creek will enter junior teams (12 to 15 years of age).

The schedule proposed calls for a home game and return game between play house both nights can attest. From a financial as well as artistic could be expected—even more. The ladies of the Guild of St. Paul's He emphasized the aim of the work, Episcopal church, under whose auspices the entertainment was staged, realized the neat sum of $286 as their share of the net proceeds, the finan-cial arrangement being a 50-50 one with the John B. In the main the cast in "All Aboard' was the same as in the production of the opera, "Miss Bob White," presented here last fall, and which estab-l' hed the reputation of Medina talent so at mirably sustained last week. As to the opera itself the general opinion is that the previous one possesses greater musical merit than "All Aboard," and withal was of higher en-"All Aboard," and withal was of higher the tertaining character; this notwith-standing that "All Aboard" contains for submission to the voters this fall, many fine bits of melody, and the many fine bits of melody, and the failed last Friday.

"Over 100,000 lbs. of 1921 wools have been sold and delivered and checks will soon go forward for these at a range from 24c for ¼ blood to 37c for Delaine. How does this look compared with local prices?

"We have sold to date $37,000 worth of warehouse stock, we are negotiating for at least on the small frame building at $2,000 net per year. Only $55,000 more stock to be sold, let us get it off our hands. Won't you see that your county gets its share cleaned up within the next two weeks? Get your men when they load wool to take a piece of stock; its a fine investment as well as a step in the right direction.

The old Rothrock mill at Ghent, which has been a landmark for seventy-five years, has come to grief, and will probably have to be sold to satisfy claims of creditors. Judge Ahern off Akron last Friday appointed a receiver for the M. B. L. company of Ghent, owner of the old mill, which was declared by the petitioners for the receivership to be insolvent. They hold mortgages totalling $15,000. The property consists of the grist mill and water rights, three houses and twelve acres of land.

The banquet was served at 7:30 with 54 present to enjoy the meal served by the Domestic Science girls. La-Velle Kirk, president of the Agriculture club, acted as toastmaster, and did exceptionally well in introducing the various speakers.

Three of the boys, Paul Hostetler, Henry Ziegler and Harold King, gave short talks about their school work and their home projects. He said that if a community was not behind the Smith-Hughes work that it would soon die, regardless of how hard the ones in charge worked to keep things going. Mr. McMillen also discussed the future of the Smith-Hughes work in this state.

ASSEMBLY DEFEATS THE TAX PROGRAM

A last effort in the house to agree upon a taxation amendment modify-sought to obtain the adoption of the Silver resolution which embodied most of the provisions recommended by Governor Davis' citizens' taxation committee, but after the house adopted an amendment proposed by Representative Fouts of Morgan county which knocked out the classification provision, further action on the pro-posal was postponed. No further attempt will be made by the house to solve the taxation question during the

The only taxation amendment that will be offered to the voters for approval this fall is the proposal for a poll tax, the senate late Thursday having adopted the resolution by Representative Weaver of Knox county, providing for submission of the poll tax. Should the amendment be approved by the voters, the legislature will fix the per capita tax to be imposed on each individual.
